

2019 Fall Junior Team Tennis

USTA Competitive Training Center (CTC)
Sept 21st – Dec. 7th (10 Matches)

J.T.T Description: The Junior Team Tennis program promotes social skills and important values by fostering a spirit of cooperation and unity, as well as individual self-growth. All kids must be an official member of the USTA. A coach will attend all home matches and make themselves available to discuss with parents the child's performance.

All Junior Team Tennis participants MUST be enrolled in an instructional based program (group, private and/or semi-private lessons) in order to participate in the Junior Team Tennis Program. Classes are live ball / live hitting. Please contact Dan Myers to register. Dmyers@mtvac.net or (703) 731-2547 cell

Benefits of Playing J.T.T.

JTT is a fun, competitive, and recreational tennis league for ages 6-18. It gives players the opportunity to utilize skills developed within our clinics. In addition, players get the following benefits:

- Improve work ethic and discipline
- Learn more about managing adversity and problem solving
- Get to participate in a sport that involves aerobic fitness

Every practice places the player in a Live Ball situation in which the players start, play, and end the rally/point without the coaches' assistance. Coaches will guide and advise the players on the strategic points of their rally/point scenarios. Practice will be held once a week on three courts with both 14u and 18u. T-shirt included.
